

Message from President

Prof. Sanjay Jain *

President, Bhagwan Mahavir University, Surat, Gujarat, India

It is my pleasure and great privilege to present to you the introductory issue of Journal of Integrated Pharmaceutical Sciences (JIPS), the official publication of Bhagwan Mahavir University, Surat. University Journals aims to provide high quality, reviewed, open access infrastructure for scholarly articles and other products of research.

The Journal of Integrated Pharmaceutical Sciences is a small step towards achieving our quality standard initiatives for academic excellence. Academic journals enable communication between scholars, form the basis for the development of further ideas, and track emerging ideas in the field of sciences. The journal provides an apt platform for reporting significant findings of research for both college teachers and students. The papers submitted to the journal undergo a rigorous peer review process.

I am delighted to congratulate Bhagwan Mahavir College of Pharmacy and the Editorial team, for their commitment and drive in launching the journal. I also look forward to our teamwork in creating guideline to maintain the good standards of journal.

I wish you all have a good learning experience from this first issue of journal!!
